Terms and Conditions - Group Courses

1 - Conditions of participation
1-1 Language courses are open to candidates in the limit of available seats. Groups comprise between 6 and 14 people maximum, depending on the classes.
1-2 If a minimum number of students is not reached at the end of the registration period, the Centre Franco Omanais retains the right to close the class. In this case, the Centre Franco Omanais will redirect students to another class, will postpone registration to the next session or will reimburse the fees (cf. please read our refund policy for more details).

2 - Attendance and assessment
2-1 Students are expected to arrive and finish classes on time and to bring their books and personal equipment. Students arriving 20 minutes late might not be accepted in class by the teacher. Students are responsible for the lessons they miss.
2-2 The absence of assessed work will prevent the student to receive an end-of-course certificate or to pass to the next level.
2-3 The Centre Franco-Omanais retains the right to allow students to take final exams if they have missed more than 6 classes. In case of absence, please warn the reception or your teacher in advance. The teacher is not obliged to repeat the lesson to absent students.
2-4 At the end of group courses, students must attend a final exam to certify their level. A minimum of 50/100 is required to pass to the following level. Depending on the results, the Centre Franco-Omanais retains the right to orientate and advise the student for the most suitable group level.
2-5 An attendance and result certificate can be issued on request at the end of the same session.
